

For Immediate Release

October 21, 2008

Contact:

Liza Dube, Sr. Director, Marketing & Communications

Cell: 603.957.1610

ldube@uwgs.org

‘Tis the season for giving...your time! United Way of the Greater Seacoast’s 2008 Holiday Giving and Volunteering Guide now available online!

The holidays are a busy time, especially for nonprofit organizations trying to make the season a little brighter for everyone. Give a gift this holiday season that is truly priceless by contributing your time to a nonprofit near you. That’s what it means to live united.

Donate, sort or deliver items to families in need, adopt a family, or visit a senior center and spread some holiday cheer. The good feeling you’ll get in return from just an afternoon of volunteering is a gift you’ll want to receive again and again.

United Way of the Greater Seacoast has made finding a volunteer opportunity that’s right for you, your organization or your family easy with this downloadable guide, organized by town and complete with detailed information about each opportunity.

Most volunteer needs are before the holidays, so visit www.uwgs.org to download the United Way Holiday Giving and Volunteering Guide today.

###

United Way of the Greater Seacoast (UWGS) is a locally governed nonprofit organization working to advance the common good by focusing on the building blocks for a good life – education, income and health. UWGS develops, supports and works in groundbreaking partnerships in the Greater Seacoast region of NH and Southern Maine to create long-lasting changes that prevent problems from happening in the first place and create opportunities for a better life for all. For more information, visit www.uwgs.org.